Mount Pleasant Baptist Church

Opal McAdams Samuel

RELIGION IS most important in the development of any area. In Texas before 1836, though the Roman Catholic Church was the state church, a few Baptists were scattered here and there among the early settlements. An early account described Baptist activity during the period in which Walker County was still a part of Montgomery County:

> Throughout the history of Montgomery County there have been two main churches, the Baptist and the Methodist. The first Baptist Church in the county was organized in 1838 with the Elder Allen Samuel as its pastor. Elder Daniel Parker, the organizer of one of the first Baptist Churches in Texas, visited this church in 1840 and wrote in his church journal the following words:
> > . . . I proceeded to Montgomery County, where I found a church with about twenty members of the sound Regular Baptist faith and order who had constituted by the best authority in their reach some time in the year 1838 with Elder Allen Samuel their Pastor. . . . This Church is known by the name of Mount Pleasant Church of the Regular Baptist faith and order. Your Humble Servant in Christian Love.[1]

The next account of Baptist activities and of a church being organized was in 1844, reported by Rev. Z. N. Morrell. His report contained the following:

> Elder R.E.B. Baylor, then residing at Lagrange, accompanied me to Colonel Richard Jarman's, some seventeen miles south-east, where we preached for several days and organized a church. . . . Greatly encouraged with the prospect, religiously, west of Brazos, my mind was impressed strongly that my labors were in demand in the county of Montgomery.[2]

Rev. Allen Samuel's name appears in "Baptists in Texas Prior to 1846," by Dr. D. D. Tidwell, Chairman of Christianity, Houston

Baptist College, Houston, Texas. He states that Dr. J. M. Carroll identified as Baptists approximately 150 people who resided in Texas prior to 1846.[3] Rev. Shelton Allphin's name is also listed; however, by 1838 his wife, Martha Allphin, was a widow and a charter member of the Mount Pleasant Baptist Church in Montgomery County.

The old record book of the Mount Pleasant Church, now in the San Jacinto Monument Library, provides information on the activities of the church from its organization on August 11, 1838, until its dissolution on August 17, 1844. The church minutes include the location of this church near the present city of Huntsville, the names of the charter members, and data concerning church organizational procedures and ordinances. Portions of an extract of these minutes, prepared by Dr. Tidwell about 1972, provide an insight into the activities of the first Baptist church in Walker County:

Montgomery County,
Republic of Texas

In accordance with a previous arrangement the —— Brethren of the Regular United Baptist Faith and Order met in counsel on Harmon's Creek at the School House near James Dean in Montgomery County and Republic of Texas on the 25 day of July in the year of our Lord 1838.

Agreed to become a constituted Baptist Church of the Regular united Baptist Faith and order.

Agreed to call on the Bethel Church on Lake Creek of the same and order Requesting her to [send] her Beloved Pastor and chosen Brethren, ordained authorities, to constitute us into a church capacity (if found worthy) at this place on Saturday before the second Lord's Day in August.

Saturday, August 11, 1838 The helps or Presbytery met according to request: Elder Allen Samuel, John Thomas, Deacon, Noah Griffith and Lewis Neal, who formed themselves in order — Elder Allen Samuel, Moderator and Brother Noah Griffith, clerk.

Introductory sermon by Elder Samuels from Proverbs 11:1-4.

Following named were declared church by the presbytery:

John Crane	Elizabeth Allphan (Allphin)
Polly Crane	Martha Allphan (Allphin)
Franky Cox	Susannah Tinsley
Sarah Dean

Elected John Crane to be a Deacon.

Elder Allen Samuel called as pastor to which he agreed for one year. Appointed Elder Samuel clerk until the church could provide some other.

Agreed to meet on the second Lord's Day and the day before.

Agreed to be known as Mount Pleasant Baptist Church of the Regular United Baptist Church Faith and order.

September 8, 1838 Frank Allen received by experience and Elizabeth An(n) Boobo (Bobo) by letter.

Acknowledged the example of washing feet to be a duty and agreed the pastor of this church should wash the Saints feet.

October 11, 1838 Received Sister Rebecca Robbins by letter.

November 9, 1838 Met at school house near Mr. Dean's house.

(No more minutes until July 10, 1839)

July 10, 1839 Elder Samuel, the pastor of this Church, informed the church that the distance he resided from this place and loosing of his home was the cause why he had so long neglected to meet with the Brethren here, which information was satisfactory to the Church.

August 10, 1839 Received Ransom Allphin by letter and Lewis (black) by experience.

Chose Elder Samuel as pastor another year. Next meeting to be at school house near Huntsville.

September 7, 1839 Dismissed Edmond (black) by letter.

Ransom Allphin elected clerk to relieve Elder Samuel. Dismissed by letter Sarah Dean.

November 11, 1839 Received Fredreck (Frederick) Elm by letter and Joseph Bais (Bays) by relation.

Agreed that this church open her doors to commune with all true Believers in Christ who have been legally Baptized by a gospel administrator upon a profession of their faith in Christ, and are in good order in Churches of our faith and order.

November 12, 1839 Received pastor Allen Samuel by letter and his wife, Nancy, by relation and Brother Edmond by letter.

January 11, 1840 Agreed meeting be removed to Brother Allphins.

March 8, 1840 Appointed Brother Allphin to visit members neglecting to fill their seats on Church meeting days, admonish them and report the effects of his labors.

Received Barney (black) and Rosannah (black) by experience.

April 11, 1840 Brother Allphin reported that members visited said it was not want of fellowship but distance that rendered it almost impossible to attend. Report satisfactory. Next meeting to be at James W. Parker.

May 7, 1840 Received Sarah Nixon by experience.

June 13, 1840 Received Sister Jane (black) by experience and James W. Parker by relation and Recantation (This occurred next day — clerk). Rules of Decorum adopted as amended.

Charles Clabough appointed clerk at request of Ransom Allphin. The church clothed Elder Allen Samuel with full authority and legal power to constitute churches on the faith and order of the Regular united Baptist, ordain Deacons and ministers of the gospel, wherever his lot may be cast.

Joseph Baise (Bays) licensed to Exercise his gift in the ministry. Brothers Allphin and Clabough to select place for a meeting house.

July 11, 1840 Elder Daniel Parker and Deacon Isaac Parker of Pilgrim Church of the Regular Baptist Faith and Order took their seats, examined and approved the record of this church as regulated and corrected and now stands on the Church Book.

"Church agrees to arrase [erase] the name and word united from the name and title by which she is now known as to Faith and order."

Elder D. Parker produced credentials that he was legally authorized by Pilgrim Church of Shelby County to constitute churches, etc.

Elder Daniel Parker proceeded "to legalize her as a Church." Ransom Allphin elected and ordained a deacon.

At the time of dissolution, the church record book was left in the possession of Elder Allen Samuel. Dr. Tidwell noted that a few additional references to Elder Samuel appeared in the book, evidently entered by someone who had possession of the book in later years. One note indicated that he was still preaching in September, 1877, at the age of ninety. The last entry was dated February 12, 1878, and also mentioned that Elder Samuel was active in the ministry.

CHARLES EDWIN BOBO, CSA, The Claiborne Light Infantry(Later Mounted; independent at Port Hudson; later it became C.A. 24th Cavalry Battalion, Army of Mississippi: The Claiborne Light Infantry Company from Claiborne County. Very little matter is obtained in regard to this organization, its fortunes were varied and unfortunate, being bodily captured twice and the officers therewith, first at Port Hudson in 1863 and sent to prison in the North. After a long confinement, they were exchanged and returned to their homes; called again to colors, they assembled in the county and by gross carelessness they were surronded and captured and again sent North, where they remained to the close of the war. This company was enrolled early in 1862 and saw service first in August 1863, at Baton Rouge, Louisiana, three hundred and eighty-five strong, under the command of Lieutenant C. L. Barrott. They served in the defense of Port Hudson, Prisoners being sent North.

"Captain A.J. Lewis, being exchanged, was promoted to Major and assigned to command the 24th Battalion of Calvary, the men as mounted infantry. This Battalion was surrendered at Gainsville, Alabama, by Major Lewis, May, 1865, being the third and final surrender. Lack of authority enforced, no discipline, and unmilitary methods are always fraught with disaster as has been done since men waged war."

1- Claiborne County, Miss. Katy B. Headley

The copies I have, made by WPA in 1930's from county records, show Charles in Company E, Powers Reg't Mississippi Calvary. His application for a pension in 1914 shows he served under Capt. Lewis.

William Simpson Bobo, CSA, Mustered into service, Capt. J.T. Moore's Co.(Claiborne Rangers) Mississippi Vols. on May 10, 1861, at Port Gibson, Miss. by Rufus Shoemaker. Joined for duty and enrolled as PVT., age 19, Capt Jno. Taylor Moore's Company (Fairview Rifles) 16 Reg't Mississippi Volunteers, at Corenth, Miss. on may 31, 1861. a distance of 314 miles. Was absent from Co. "G" because of sickness at Warrenton between Sept.& Oct. 1861. Exact dates not shown. "Fairview Rifles: The third company, Fairview Rifles, the name afterward changed to Claiborne Rifles, was organized in May 1861, and left about the 15th for the seat of war in Virginia, becoming Co. "G" of the 16th Mississippi Regiment. With this regiment it served under Stonewall Jackson in the celebrated Valley Campaign and was the only Regiment(sic) in Jackson's Army. In july 1862 they were assigned to Featherston's Brigade, completing the same, and as (sic) follows: 2nd Battalion, 12th, 16th, and 19th regiments and with the brigade took part in all the battles in Virginia by General R.E. Lee to the end of Appomattox, April 10, 1865. (Foote, Record of Confederate Soldiers) William was wounded in the battle of Chancellorsville May 3rd. 1863, sent to hospital in Richmond. Returned from hospital Aug 13, 1863. Copies of record show W.S. Bobo on report of casualties of Posey's Brigade in the battle around Fredricksburg,(Chancellorsville) Va. May 1 to 5 1863, transferred to General Hospital No. 2 Lynchburg, Va. May 11, 1863. On 30 day furlough from Dec. 20, 1863. In battles(?) from furlough until captured April 2, 1865 near Petersburg, Va. Confined at Point Lookout, Md. until released June 9, 1865

Hope you can make sense out of all this. Alittle from each record.

Lack of authority enforced, no discipline, and unmilitary methods are always fraught with disaster as has been done since men waged war."

1- Claiborne County, Miss. Katy B. Headley

The copies I have, made by WPA in 1930's from county records, show Charles in Company E, Powers Reg't Mississippi Calvary. His application for a pension in 1914 shows he served under Capt. Lewis.

William Simpson Bobo, CSA, Mustered into service, Capt. J.T. Moore's Co.(Claiborne Rangers) Mississippi Vols. on May 10, 1861, at Port Gibson, Miss. by Rufus Shoemaker. Joined for duty and enrolled as PVT., age 19, Capt Jno. Taylor Moore's Company (Fairview Rifles) 16 Reg't Mississippi Volunteers, at Corenth, Miss. on may 31, 1861. a distance of 314 miles. Was absent from Co. "G" because of sickness at Warrenton between Sept.& Oct. 1861. Exact dates not shown. "Fairview Rifles: The third company, Fairview Rifles, the name afterward changed to Claiborne Rifles, was organized in May 1861, and left about the 15th for the seat of war in Virginia, becoming Co. "G" of the 16th Mississippi Regiment. With this regiment it served under Stonewall Jackson in the celebrated Valley Campaign and was the only Regiment(sic) in Jackson's Army. In july 1862 they were assigned to Featherston's Brigade, completing the same, and as (sic) follows: 2nd Battalion, 12th, 16th, and 19th regiments and with the brigade took part in all the battles in Virginia by General R.E. Lee to the end of Appomattox, April 10, 1865. (Foote, Record of Confederate Soldiers) William was wounded in the battle of Chancellorsville May 3rd. 1863, sent to hospital in Richmond. Returned from hospital Aug 13, 1863. Copies of record show W.S. Bobo on report of casualties of Posey's Brigade in the battle around Fredricksburg,(Chancellorsville) Va. May 1 to 5 1863, transferred to General Hospital No. 2 Lynchburg, Va. May 11, 1863. On 30 day furlough from Dec. 20, 1863. In battles(?) from furlough until captured April 2, 1865 near Petersburg, Va. Confined at Point Lookout, Md. until released June 9, 1865

Hope you can make sense out of all this. Alittle from each record.

WINTERGREEN CEMETERY

Cemetery - Wintergreen
Location - Claiborne County, Mississippi, in the town of Port Gibson
Copied and submitted by - Gordon M. Wells
Address - 2424 Harriotte Avenue, Jackson 9, Mississippi
Date copied - March 1 & 2, 1959
Note: Claiborne County, Mississippi, was established January 27, 1802, 15 years before the adoption of the first Constitution of the State. Port Gibson was chosen as the county seat and named for one of the pioneer citizens of the county, samuel Gibson, who ha his plantation where the town is located.

Many of the pioneer settlers, from New England and Atlantic seaboard states, are buried in the town's cemetery, Wintergreen. This is such a large cemetery that it is being given in sections; the first appeared in this publication, Volume VIII, pp 121-128, 1961. This is the 2nd installment; others will follow in succeeding Volumes.

Dear Brother Bobo:

Re: ABSOLUM H. BOBO - MASONIC RECORD

In answer to your request, we have searched our records and have found the following information regarding Absolum H. Bobo:

> It was reported that Absalom H. Bobo received the Masonic Degrees in Grand Gulf Lodge #41, Claiborne County, Grand Gulf, Mississippi, being Initiated, Passed and Raised to Master Mason in 1849. He was then Demitted in 1850. (Grand Gulf Lodge #41 was Chartered February 6, 1840, and surrendered its Charter in 1855.)
> It was reported that Absolom H. Bobo served as Senior Warden of Carpenter Lodge No. 110, Rocky Springs, Claiborne County, in 1850, the year that Carpenter Lodge was Chartered (February 6, 1850 - Defunct 1930.) The name was changed to Claiborne Lodge No. 110 in 1850. A. H. Bobo was reported a member in 1851, 1852, and 1853. In 1854 he was reported to be a member of Washington Lodge No. 3, Port Gibson, Claiborne County; member in 1855 and was reported Died in 1856, a member in Good Standing of Washington Lodge No. 3 at the time of death.
> It was also reported that a JOHN BOBO was admitted to Claiborne Lodge No. 110 in 1852, having Demitted from Tappan Lodge No. 59, Hinds County, Brownsville, in 1851. He had been Initiated, Passed and Raised in 1850 in Lodge No. 59. We were not sure that this was a member of your family but it is possible.

We are enclosing a copy of the Charter of Claiborne Lodge No. 110, which shows Absolom H. Bobo as a Charter Member and an officer. We felt you might be interested in this. We are also enclosing your check inasmuch as there is no charge for this service.

Fraternally yours,

T. K. Griffis

The Bobo Family

by Melanie Nolan
19907 Pinehurst Trail Drive
Humble, Texas 77346

Revised March 29, 1990
Revised March 14, 1993

When I began to research my "roots" in 1981, I knew that I had a gr gr grandfather named Charles Edwin Bobo. As my research progressed, I discovered that Charles Edwin's father was Foster Bobo whose father was Livingston Bobo. In the natural order of things, the research of others fell into my hands. I was puzzled that my Livingston Bobo was unanimously ignored by everyone. That the man lived is known; he is on census records, and the probate of his estate in found in Spartanburg Co., SC records. Also, he was appointed constable in Spartanburg County in 1799, which indicates that he was a respected and productive member of the community. After searching through records for other Bobo men, I found wills for Lewis, Sampson and Absolum which accounted for their children, and no Livingston was named in any of them. I noticed that Livingston Bobo was associated in several deeds with Spencer Bobo, Sr. and that this Spencer Bobo, Sr.'s wife was named Judith or Juda. This told me that this was not Rev. Spencer Bobo, son of Sampson, whose wife's name was Jane. The Newell's, in Bobo Cousins by the Dozens, said that Francis Spencer Bobo, Sr. married Mary Judith Mason and that Francis Spencer Bobo, Jr., son of Francis Spencer Bobo, Sr. married Nancy Berry. After carefully studying the Virginia records and the South Carolina records, I felt that some mistakes had been made in recording this family's history. It appeared to me that a generation was missing and this was the only generation and family where Livingston Bobo would fit. Instead of Spencer Bobo who married Mary Judith Mason and Spencer Bobo who married Nancy Berry, there are three Spencer Bobos; one who married first Jane _____? and second Mary Taylor Sparks, widow of John Sparks; another, his son Spencer, who married Judith; and third, their son Spencer who married Nancy Berry. For the time being, I will disregard the name Mason as being connected with this family, and I will not refer to any of the Spencers as having the first name Francis, as there is no obvious proof that it is so.

Spencer Bobo, formerly of Caroline County, VA, moved to Orange County, VA (later Culpeper and Madison Counties) sometime between November 1737 and 1739. Deed Book 2, page 194; 24 Nov 1737 in Orange County, VA, records sale of 150 acres of land from Henry Kendall to Spencer Bobo of Caroline County, VA. In 1739 he is found on the tithe lists in the precinct of John Mitchell, Orange County, VA. Prior to November 1737, the only records found of Spencer Bobo are in Caroline County, VA. In Order Book, 1732-1740...page 462, 9 Dec 1737: Spencer Bobo, Jane Bobo [she being first privately examined] and Thomas White acknowledged their deed and livery and seizin and receipt to Richard George. If this is the same Spencer Bobo who came to Orange County, VA, it is not known if the above Jane Bobo was his wife, sister or perhaps sister-in-law. More likely she was his wife since she was examined to relinquish her dower right. Perhaps this was the sale of land that Spencer Bobo inherited from his mother, Elizabeth Spencer White Bobo. Unfortunately Caroline County, VA is a burned county and the order book is the only available source of records. This is the only mention in any records of Jane.

The earliest account of Spencer Bobo having a wife named Mary is found in Deed Book A, pages 41-46, 21 Sep 1749; Orange County, VA: sale of 400 acres to Robert Terril from Spencer Bobo. Mary, the wife of Spencer Bobo, relinquished her dower right. The last mention of Mary is in Deed Book D, p. 435, Culpepper Co., VA, 15 Mar 1764. In this deed, Spencer and wife Mary and John Gibbs of Culpepper and Ambrose Barnett of Orange are selling 88 acres in the parish of Bromfield of Culpeper Co. to John Alford Head. Research done in 1931 by William B. Newman, an eminent genealogist, states that Spencer Bobo married Mary (maiden name unknown) the widow of John Sparks, year unknown. Mr. Newman's research was published in an article entitled "Towles and Clark Families" in Vol. XIII, No. 1 (July, 1931) of Tyler's Quarterly Historical and Genealogical Magazine. He gives no documentation with this information. However, Spencer Bobo is involved in a good many transactions with the Sparks family in Orange and Culpeper County, VA records, and wife Mary is mentioned in several of them. In A Book of Garretts, compiled by Hester E. Garrett is found "Stokeley Towles m. (2) Jane, Widow of Thos. Warton & dau. of John Sparks, whose widow, Mary (Taylor) m. (2) Spencer Bobo."

In Culpeper Co., VA Order Book 6, p. 716, 25 April 1763 is a motion by Robert Terrell that Spencer Bobo and Isaac Smith, two old men who are infirm are material witnesses in the suit pending between him and Winnifred Spencer. Unless Spencer 1 Bobo removed from Virginia to North Carolina or South Carolina with his sons and died there, he appears to have died in Virginia, in the middle 1760's to early 1770's. Culpeper Deed Book F, Page 540 records a bond made 10 Jan 1752, in which William Sparks gives to Spencer Bobo and Mary, his wife, the land on which they live. This deed was not recorded until 21 Aug 1772, and indicates that the land was about to be sold, either in preparation for Spencer Bobo to remove from Virginia, or because he is dead.

Now we have a Spencer Bobo who, by indication of available records, seems to have lived between the years of ca 1700 to ca 1770, having two wives, Jane _____? and Mary Taylor. This will be Spencer 1 Bobo.

Assuming that Spencer 1 Bobo had a son named Spencer, he will be referred to as Spencer 2 Bobo. On 17 May 1750, in Culpeper Co., VA Deed Book A, pages 154-156, the following deed is recorded: James Barnett to Spencer Bobo, planter; 100 acres. Witnesses for this deed included Spencer Bobo, Junr. Spencer Bobo, Junr., or Spencer 2 Bobo, would have to be at least 21 years old to witness a deed, putting his birth no later than 1729. This is much earlier than the 1739 birthdate that is generally accepted for Spencer Bobo, Junr., the son of Spencer

Bobo, Sr., and who is presently accepted as having moved to Spartanburg Co., SC and married to Nancy Berry. There are strong indications that there was another Spencer 2 Bobo whose wife's name was Judith (possibly Barham, Tilman Livingston or Foster). This would present another generation whose family has been included in the generation of the Spencer Bobo who married Nancy Berry.

In Bobo and Related Families, by Vera Smith Spears, it says that, "Mills in his statistics published in South Carolina in 1826 says on page 731 that in Spartanburg County there is a Mrs. Judith Bobo who was in her 96 year and enjoyed good health..." This could be the same Judith (Juda) who is named in Spartanburg County, SC deeds as the wife of Spencer Bobo. If she were 96 years of age in 1826, her birthdate of 1730 would put her at the right age to be the wife of the skipped Spencer 2 Bobo, who was also born around 1730.

This Spencer 2 Bobo is likely the same Spencer Bobo, Junr. who was a witness to the deed of his father in 1750 in Culpeper County, VA. He is also likely the same Spencer Bobo who, with his wife Judith or Juda, is found in two deeds in Spartanburg County, SC. One is dated 4 Aug 1788 and the other is dated 1 July 1789.

The 1800 census for Spartanburg County, S. C. enumerated two Spencer Bobos. One was Rev. Spencer Bobo, son of Sampson Bobo. The other was over 45 years old with a female also over 45 years old and could be Spencer 2 Bobo and his wife Judith. By 1810 Judith (shown as Judea) was enumerated with no males in the household. Spencer 2 Bobo was likely dead by this time. Mention of a will for Spencer Bobo, dated 1788 and probated in Union County, S. C., is made in the book Bobo Cousins by the Dozens. A search of the Spartanburg records has shown no evidence of such a will. In 1830, there is an elderly female, who could be Judith Bobo, living in the household of Elizabeth Bobo, widow of Livingston Bobo.

The 1800 census for Laurens County, S.C. has a Spencer Bobo. I will call him Spencer 3 Bobo. He was 25-45 years old, which would put his date of birth at 1755-75, and make him a good candidate to be a son of Spencer 2 Bobo and Judith. He can't be a son of Lewis or Sampson because their sons are accounted for, and Absolom left a will which named no sons.

In 1788, a Spencer Bobo began buying land in Laurens County, S.C. Deed Book B, page 343 records him buying 100 acres on Beverly's Branch of Warrior Creek. On page 393 of the same book Spencer Bobo, Junr. is a witness for the sale of land from George Berry and wife Mary to Wm. Berry on Warrior Creek. In Deed Book C, page 312, 1790-91, he is again a witness to the sale of a slave from Elizabeth Berry to Wm. Berry. Deed Book F, page 235, 1794-97, has Spencer Bobo of Spartanburg County, buying 100 acres on the Enoree River from Sanford Berry and wife Elizabeth. Page 236, 1795-1797, of the same book records Spencer Bobo buying 50 acres on the Enoree River at the source of Warrior Creek from Angus Campbell and wife Milley. Deed Book H, page 92, 1805, records the sale of these same 150 acres by Spencer Bobo and wife Nancy.

Here then we have Spencer 3 Bobo who married Nancy Berry, daughter of William Berry. There is a Spencer Bobo enumerated on both the 1790 and 1800 Laurens County census. When Spencer 3 Bobo and Nancy Berry married is unknown.

The Walter Stewart Family History, by Mary Rawlinson, states that on Jan 4, 1810, Spencer Bobo bought a tract of land from the Stewart farm, and on Jan. 10 added an additional 125 acres adjoining this. These transactions are recorded in Laurens County, S. C., Deed Book J., pages 163 and 164. The Stewart book goes on to say that Walter Stewart, a widower, soon married Isabella, the young daughter of Spencer Bobo. To be the "young daughter" of Spencer Bobo, Isabella would have to be the daughter of a younger Spencer Bobo and born later than 1772, as is believed to be the birth date of Isabella Bobo. She would have been 38 in 1810, which can hardly be considered young even by today's standards.

In conclusion, it seems likely that there is another Spencer Bobo who has been missed by the researchers. The first, Spencer 1 Bobo, father of the four original Bobo brothers, appears to have married twice, first to Jane ? and second to Mary Taylor Sparks, widow of John Sparks. It appears that Jane could be the mother of all of the brothers, since she was still living in 1737. Secondly, Spencer 2 Bobo was married to Judith, (Jude, Juda) and seems to have migrated to South Carolina ca 1771. Thirdly, Spencer 3 Bobo, son of Spencer 2 Bobo, married Nancy Berry and lived in Spartanburg Co., SC and Laurens Co., SC before moving to Georgia in 1824. Therefore the line of descent could be as follows. Dates given are only guesses. Much more research must be done.

Possible Line of Descent of the Several Spencer Bobos

Spencer 1 Bobo	Spencer 2 Bobo	Spencer 3 Bobo	Isabella Bobo
b. ca 1700	b. ca 1729	b. ca 1760	m

		m
		William Golding Foster
		8.Sampson (?)
		9.Mollie (?)
		10.Lida (?)

The children of Spencer 3 Bobo are included here because some of them (Isabella who married Walter Stewart and Henry Turner and the wife of Henry Campbell who appears to have been named Ann and not Mollie) have been mistakenly included as children of Spencer 2 Bobo, or rather as part of what is really two families that have been combined into one. Also, contrary to earlier recording of family history, it appears conclusive that James Stewart, son of Walter Stewart, married Scynthia Bobo, daughter of Tillman B. Bobo and Catherine King rather than Lida Bobo.

This chart is by no means final. There is no solid proof for all, and it is not meant to be used as such. Question marks behind names denote those children for which I have no proof at this time. In no way are we saying that previous beliefs and general acceptances are untrue. We are merely extending this for consideration, and the possibility that someone has further thoughts or documentation to add.

INTRODUCTION

This volume is a compilation of several types of records from various counties of South Carolina. A few words of introduction are necessary concerning each section.

The Spartanburg District Will Book A is the first extant will book for that county. (The term district properly applies from 1800-1868). However, there are wills and estates extant from the formation of the county in 1785. The records prior to 1900 were transferred to South Carolina Archives in 1972.

Marlboro County Deed Book A is the first deed book for that county, beginning in 1786. Prior to 1785 or 1786, all deeds recorded in S. C. were done so in Charleston. However, quite often deeds were not recorded until years after their execution. A number of deeds in this volume date from the 1770's and are extremely valuable. This book is in the Court House in Bennettsville.

Cheraws Equity District was the last of the equity districts to be divided, and an equity court established for each county. It was created by an act of 1808 and included the district of Darlington, Marlboro, and Chesterfield. It is quite important as all Chesterfield records were destroyed by fire in 1865. This abstract is only the equity decree book. For a complete picture of the case, the original papers--complain, answer, exhibits (if any) and decree--should be examined. These papers were apparently divided between the Marlboro and Darlington Court Houses. They can be seen on microfilm at South Carolina Archives. A map showing the Equity Districts of 1808 is found in the Appendix.

Lexington Deed Book M is the first extant one from that county after the fire of 1839. Fortunately, this and the following books survived a subsequent fire in 1865 in which the probate records were destroyed. This book contains some deed which date before 1839, and the long chians of title give information on deeds no longer extant. The dower renunciations are quite valuable in naming the wives of the grantors. The delivery information found at the end of the deed is somewhat unusual, and occasionally states a relationship.

The Trustee and Guardina Bond Book for Columbia and Lexington Equity Districts is found among the records of Lexington County, rather than Richland where it would be expected. At least some of the Lexington County Equity records have survived, and are found in the office of the Probate Judge in Lexington. The Columbia District Equity papers to which these bonds belong are filed within the Richland County Equity records and are housed at South Carolina Archives. Columbia District was another of the Equity Districts formed by an act of 1808. It included the districts of Richland, Lexington, and Fairfield. (See map in Appendix.) These records are important to Lexington because of the Court House fires mentioned above, and the Richland Court House fire of 1865 in which the deeds were destroyed.

Fairfield County Will Book 2 contains wills, inventories, appraisements, and appointments of guardians. The first Fairfield Will Book has been abstracted and published in The South Carolina Magazine of Ancestral Research, Kingstree, S. C.

Maps are included from Mills Atlas of Spartanburg, Lexington, Marlboro, Chesterfield, Darlington, and Fairfield Districts.
